

County Optometric Group Installs Dr. Allen Pyeatt as First Veep

Dr. Allen L. Pyeatt, 304 Cerise Ave., was installed as first vice-president of the Los Angeles County Optometrists Assn. Thursday, when the organization met at the Roger Young auditorium for its first monthly meeting of the new year.

Other highlights of the program was an address by a prominent Los Angeles physician and the conferring of an honorary membership on an internationally known British vision specialist.

Recipient of the rare honorary membership in the Association was Dr. Stuart H. Fisher, Ph.D., D.Sc., O.D., who joined the Los Angeles College of Optometry faculty early in 1953 after 34 years of practice in England.

Dr. C. Morley Sellers, director of Health Education and Health Services branch of the Los Angeles City School Department, was the featured speaker on the program, which was scheduled to start at 7 p.m. after a 6 o'clock dinner meeting. Doctor Sellers discussed the health program in the city's schools, with particular emphasis on the care taken to safeguard children's vision.

Other Officers
Elected to take office with Dr. Pyeatt and Drs. L. Earl James of Mar Vista, president; William W. Leslie of Glendale, second vice-president; David E. Kraus of Los Angeles, James J. Eves of Culver City, and Robert Severson of Alhambra, directors; Albert Karam of Los Angeles, treasurer.

Installing officer was Dr. Walter Studt of Hollywood. Appointed as secretary is Dr. Harry Joffice of Glendale, while key committee chairmen announced by the new administration are Drs. Bernard Hanson of Los Angeles, Civil Defense; Frank Brazelton of Glendale, school relations; and Dale Freeberg of Hawthorne, occupational vision.

Plans also were made Thursday for a large delegation of Los Angeles County optometrists to attend the 49th annual convention of the California Optometric Association, scheduled for Feb. 20 to 22 inclusive at San Francisco.

Harbor City Sergeant to Receive Lieutenant's Bars in Ceremony

Sergeant First Class Donald J. Hagemier, 1418 W. 256th St., Harbor City, will receive the gold bars of a second lieutenant in graduation and commissioning ceremonies of the California National Guard Candidate School Sunday afternoon, Jan. 17, at 2 p.m., in the Long Beach National Guard Center.

Brigadier General Roy A. Green, Sacramento, assistant division commander, 49th Infantry Division, will be the principal speaker at the exercises. Approximately 200 National Guardsmen, families and friends will witness the ceremony and attend an informal reception immediately following.

Hagemier has been a member of Company H, 111th Armored Cavalry Regiment, since January, 1953, and previously served in the Navy for four years.

He is employed by the National Supply Co. and resides with his wife, Ruth, and small son, Chris, at the above address.

The commissioning ceremony comes as the climax for the Harbor City citizen-soldier following instruction and training for the past year as a member of the 4th Officer Candidate Company, located in Long Beach. The OCS, consisting of a 205-hour course, is conducted approximately one week-end a month for a year. School standards are extremely high and compare favorably with regular army OCS. Emphasis is placed on a candidate's capacity of troop leadership, initiative, and dependability.
